Reporter/Journalist

Legacy Music Co. is “For The Culture”. March 11th, 2023, at 4PM EST, we are inviting all youth ages 13 and older to a one-of-a-kind mixer. This networking event and showcase is a prelude of what teens can expect if they decide to join the summer workshops that will be made available to them. As well as after school programs and Legacy’s media academy programs. “When it’s about the culture, it’s about the youth first.” – Nathaniel “Nature” Jones, Owner.

As one of the leading reporter/journalists in the Charlotte area, it is only right to reach out to you about For The Culture. Cultivating the future leaders in this industry is a big focus for Legacy Music Co. and your previous coverages on Axios made reaching out to you a “must-do”. I love how your articles feel as if you’re talking with the reader personally. Like your “Everything You Need To Know About the North Carolina State Fair” article. I felt like you were talking to me directly, that is a skill not everyone can master.

I would love to have the opportunity to interview.

Sincerely,

Quentin Nash
